

Your place for sales

Senasen Marketplace allows service providers to build a profile, shine a spotlight on a particular part of their offering and be found by hundreds of potential clients. Build a following, share your insights and grow your business.

The Marketplace sits within the Senasen platform and you benefit from the same advanced functionality that allows our other members to connect, communicate and share.

Features and benefits

Which types of service providers can sign-up?

Senasen Marketplace supports a number of different types of organisation, including (but not limited to):

PR Firms

Industry bodies and trade associations

Exchanges

IR, communications and content agencies

Graphic design and video producers

Brokers

Lawyers, accountants and advisors

Banks

Recruiters

Consultants

Advertise your services and demonstrate what makes you different

Build a profile for your organisation

Use marketing pages to highlight individual products and services

Post your most compelling documents, videos, and podcasts

Give regular updates and integrate an RSS feed

Be found by thousands of potential clients and customers

Companies, investors and asset managers can search for you by service type, geography and size

Prospective clients can follow you to receive regular updates and message you within the Senasen platform

Initiate Q&A sessions to spark debate on topics that relate to your proposition